

RMT 'Old School' Event

Thursday 22nd November 2018

Venue: LT Museum Depot
Across the road from Acton Town Station

- GREETINGS

Meet at 13.45 for a 14.00 start

- A LOOK AROUND

Branch member Martin Eady will give us a short tour round the Museum Depot. Martin is a former car examiner and RMT Exec member He's the author of 'Hold on Tight' the story of London Transport and the Trade Unions.

- BACK IN THE DAY

RMT and reparations activist Glenroy Watson has been Regional President, Finsbury Park Secretary, Black and Ethnic Conference Chair. He started on the buses in 1979 before coming over to the train side. Glen will talk about those early days and particularly some of the men and women who came to LT from the Caribbean. Today many have been victimised in the Windrush scandal.

- INFORMAL DISCUSSION

and various refreshments

The event is free to RMT members whether retired or working, plus partners/friends. Please try to let me know if you're likely to come to help get the catering right.
